

I am appauled by the airing of Saving Private Ryan on public television tonight. The use of the "F" word and the graphic violence are completely unacceptable from a public braodcasting network! I hope that the FCC will fine ABC to the maximum extent possible for this infraction! Don't back down on this! Our children's future depends on it!!!